

Business Overview

Nathaniel Balkaran

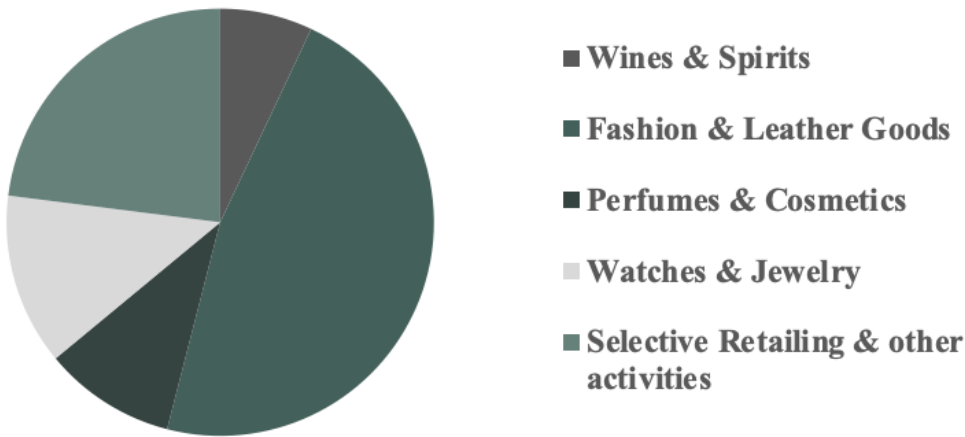

Business Overview: LVMH

Business Overview

LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton operates as the world's largest luxury goods conglomerate, managing a portfolio of 75 Maisons. Founded in 1987 and headquartered in Paris, France, the conglomerate currently employs over 211,000 full-time workers globally. The company boasts a massive global footprint with a retail network of over 6,280 stores, generating €80.8 billion in revenue in 2025. Arnault family holds majority voting power (approx. 64%)

Revenue Breakdown

Key Financials

Ticker	MC.PA
Share Price	502.20 EUR
52 Week Low – High	436.55-654.70 EUR
Market Capitalization	249.23B EUR
TTM Price/Earnings	22.98x
TTM EV/EBITDA	10.54x

52- Week Performance

Business Overview: LVMH

Capital Allocation and M&A

High-margin operating model consistently delivers substantial free cash flow, facilitating aggressive internal and external reinvestment

Broad industry exposure provides a natural hedge, allowing the company to weather demand normalization

Leverages its size to provide brands with prime real estate, shared global logistics, and superior media-buying power that standalone brands cannot match.

Economic/Heritage Moat

Portfolio is anchored by giants like Louis Vuitton and Christian Dior, which function as Veblen goods with extraordinary pricing power

The group maintains end-to-end vertical integration with rigorous control over the entire value chain

Multi-generational heritage and craftsmanship create barrier to entry that new market entrants cannot replicate.

Geographic Exposure

